

MARIE-LAURE LAVENIR

After starting in the banking and asset management industry, Marie-Laure Lavenir developed her career in the management of non-profit organizations and in fundraising.

She has been Secretary General of a University Foundation and has been, since 2015, Director General of ICOMOS, a unique non-governmental, not for profit international organization, committed to furthering the conservation of cultural heritage. Her mission is to develop ICOMOS's presence and activities across the world, in particular as Advisory Body to the UNESCO World heritage Committee for the implementation of the World Heritage Convention.

As a consultant, she shares her experience with diverse cultural or educational institutions.

Marie-Laure graduated from HEC and IEP Paris.
